

George Mann & Julius Margolin

The Albums

Young and Younger (1999): The first album, 14 songs of workers and struggle... includes "Deportee," "Hard Traveling," "The Preacher and the Slave" and 10 originals, very folksy and mostly acoustic.

Miles to Go Before We Sleep (2000): 13 songs, released right before the election. Includes "Hobo's Lullaby," "We Shall Not Be Moved," "Don't Let Age Get You Down," and "We Demand a Living Wage."

Hail to the Thief! (2001): The first collection of anti-Bush songs... 15 in all, with Anne Feeney, Chris Chandler, Jon Fromer, Francisco Herrera, and more!

Just A Few Bad Apples (2003): Their favorite! "Dark as a Dungeon," "Hard Times Come Again No More," "Come and Go With Me to That Land," "Your Money and Your Power," "This Beautiful Child." A great set of songs and musicianship.

Hail to the Thief II (2004): The second collection! 20 great songs by Tom Paxton, Kim & Reggie Harris, Utah Phillips, Amy Martin, Faith Petric and more. Hilarious!

Hail to the Thieves, Vol. III (2006): The latest compilation. Billy Bragg, Utah Phillips, Anne Feeney, Chuck Brodsky, Colleen Kattau and many more, 20 tracks!

Into the Fire (2008): George's first solo CD in 10 years. Twelve powerful, serious songs: "I Remember Winter," "Pray for Me," "I'm Chipping Away at This War," "This Government of Shame," "Rest, Papa Rest," and more plus 3 bonus cuts.

Farewell to the Thief! (2008): The final cut is the deepest! 20 great songs by Tom Paxton, Anne Feeney, Utah Phillips, Garnet Rogers & more.... Good riddance!

"A Union Man" DVD: This is the documentary film George made about Julius's life. 56 minutes plus one hour of bonus and concert footage.
