

One At a Time

All songs written by George Mann except:

“We Have Fed You All for A Thousand Years” was written by an unknown Proletarian, as published in the IWW Little Red Songbook, 1919 edition, Music by Rudolf von Liebich.

“How Can I Keep From Singing?” is an old Christian hymn, music by Robert Lowry, with third verse by Doris Plenn.

“Hood River Roll On” music and lyrics by Utah Phillips.

All songs © 2018 George Mann (BMI) except “Oklahoma’s Son” © 1998 George Mann and

“Every Loser Was Someone Once” © 1992 George Mann

Photos by George Mann. Graphic artwork by Vladimir Arakcheyev of Consolidated Color Press, Inc., New York City, a union shop.

For all who still endure the challenges of the road in order to share the power and beauty of music. Safe travels!

The Pickers and Grinders

Michael Wellen: Drums (Tracks 2, 5, 8, 10)

Doug Robinson: Bass guitar (Tracks 1, 2, 5, 8, 10), double bass (Track 11), harmony vocals (Tracks 2, 5, 8)

George Mann: Acoustic and electric guitars and ebows; lead and harmony vocals; keyboards (Tracks 1, 2, 6); harmonica (Tracks 2, 11); dulcimer (Tracks 3, 4)

Mary Brett Lorson: Harmony vocals (Tracks 1, 2, 5, 6, and 8-11)

Terry Burns: Harmony vocals (Tracks 5, 6, 8)

Rich DePaolo: Lead and rhythm electric guitars (Tracks 5 and 10)

Brian Unger: Lead and rhythm electric guitars (Track 8)

Marty Confurius: Cello and cello arrangement (Track 4)

Produced by George Mann, with invaluable input, a warm environment, and good coffee provided by Will Russell. Recorded and engineered by Will Russell at Electric Wilburland Studios in Newfield, NY.

Basic tracks for tracks 2, 3, 5, 8, 9 and 10

were recorded and engineered by Marc Urselli at Wilburland, with additional recording by Will Russell.

Mixed by Will Russell and George Mann at Wilburland, August 2018.

Mastered by Dana Billings and Will Russell.